

Visiting the Museum of the Koźle Region

- Entry to the Museum is free of charge. Monetary donations can be made only by bank transfer. The data for the transfer can be found on the Museum's website.
- The Museum is located in the former south wing of the Castle of the Silesian Piasts in Koźle, below the castle courtyard and the Observation Tower.
- In the Museum, you can see the exhibits related to the Koźle Region and the town of Kędzierzyn-Koźle. These exhibits are original. In some cases, replicas are presented, which is mentioned in the descriptions.
- Please do not touch the exhibits.
- Please do not enter the technical rooms.
- Photography and filming are allowed without a flash.
- The main entrance to the Museum is located in the courtyard of the Castle Hill.
- For individuals in wheelchairs, the entrance from the parking lot is opened after the Reception has been informed.
- The Museum's offices can be found in the tower located in the southwest corner of the Castle Hill.
- Please leave bikes and other vehicles attached to the bicycle stand in the courtyard.
- The Reception provides information regarding the tour and the events held at the Museum and sells souvenirs.
- Starting from the Reception, the tour can proceed in two directions: either to the observation tower or to the museum halls situated below the courtyard.
- The tour in the Museum can begin half an hour before closing at the latest.
- The order of the tour is indicated by the numbered boards complementing the exhibition.
- Restrooms are located on the lowest floor of the Museum, next to the staircase.
- Coat hangers for the visitors can be found near the restrooms. The Museum does not take responsibility for items left there.
